UPDATE TO WORKSHOP EXPLORING LEGAL THEORY: POSTGRADUATE PROJECTS IN THE MAKING, 5TH - 7TH NOVEMBER 2010

1 Participants and abstracts

We've had some changes regarding participants. The current list is given below. Abstracts received are on our web-site at: <http://www.asfpg.de/english/17303/WSValnov10/Abstracts/valnov2010abs.html>

2 Workshop plan

A schedule for the workshop, will be drawn up later. To give you an idea: it will begin on Friday 5th at 16.00 with a two hour session, followed by a reception at the Stiftung (drinks and nibbles) until 19.30. Thereafter the evening is free. Saturday 6th will be a full working day, beginning at 9.00 and closing at 18.00. The workshop dinner is planned for that evening at 20.00. Sunday 7th is planned to run between 9.00 and 16.00 closing. Each post-graduate student will have at least one hour for presentation and discussion of her or his work. How much time goes to presentation, how much for discussion is up to individuals.

3 Readings

The workshop will include two reading sessions:

Marianne Constable, Just Silences: The Limits and Possibilities of Modern Law, Princeton University Press, 2005, Chapters 1 and 2.

Giorgio Agamben, 'Philosophical Archaeology', Law and Critique (2009) 211–231

The readings will not be circulated. If you have any difficulty in getting copies of them please email Ulrike with your postal address and she will put copies in the mail to you.

4 Pre-circulation of papers

The quality of discussion and feedback relies on pre-circulation of papers early enough for them to be read by all participants. Please send them to me at latest by Friday 22nd October. I will then circulate them electronically.

5 Administration

We have received information on arrival and departure dates from some participants and arranged accommodation at the Hotel Stephan accordingly. For those who have not yet indicated, reservations have been made for the 5th–7th November: that is arrival date 5th November, departure date 7th November. These reservations will shortly be confirmed. If you have not confirmed your arrival and departure dates with Ulrike and if these dates do not suit your travel arrangement you should contact Ulrike right away with the dates for which you need accommodation at the hotel.

Ulrike will be in contact with you later with maps, addresses, travel re-imbusement forms, dietary requests etc. In the meantime, don't hesitate to email her (ulrike.horway@asfpg.de) if you have further questions or requests.

As per my update email: The Stiftung's usual procedure is to re-imburse travel expenses by electronic transfer to a nominated bank account during or after the workshop. We have a simple form to be filled out and request receipts/tickets showing the amount to be re-imbursed. Ulrike will contact you in due course and let you know account details needed to make the transfer. Accommodation is pre-paid by the Stiftung. Travel expenses include air or train fares together with the costs of travel to and from airport by taxi or convenient public transport.
